MARYANN MIZE TO SPEAK AT ENGLEWOOD CHAMBER MEETING

Port Charlotte, Fla., Sept. 5, 2014 — Charlotte State Bank & Trust Senior Vice President and Senior Credit Officer Maryann Mize, CCIM, is the featured speaker at the Englewood Chamber of Commerce’s “Good Morning Englewood” meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 23. Her program, an “Overview of Charlotte County Real Estate Statistics,” will examine the current commercial and residential markets with an emphasis on western Charlotte County.

“We’re looking forward to Maryann’s presentation,” said Ed Hill, executive director of the Englewood Chamber. “Her real estate expertise is unparalleled, and I know our members will appreciate her focusing on our particular area.”

Coffee and a continental breakfast will be available at the event, which will take place from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. at Chamber headquarters, 601 South Indiana Avenue. For additional information, call the Chamber at (941) 474-5551.

A two-time PC-PG-NP Realtors’ Business Partner of the Year, Mize makes presentations on Charlotte County real estate statistics to business and civic groups on a regular basis. She is a former president of the Charlotte County Chamber of Commerce and was inducted into the Leadership Charlotte Hall of Fame last year.

Mize earned the CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Member) designation 2007. She has served as panel member, presenter, and moderator at CCIM national conferences in 2012-13. Currently a CCIM Senior Instructor, she earned the institute’s Rising Star Award for receiving top ratings from her students in 2012.
